

ÉCOLE DES HAUTES ÉTUDES EN SCIENCES SOCIALES
Institut interdisciplinaire d'anthropologie du contemporain

UNESCO FRUCTIONS

HERITAGE-MAKING ACROSS GLOBAL GOVERNANCE

EASA Network for the Anthropology of International Governance

WORKSHOP
12-13 April 2016
COLLABORATIVE
DILEMMAS

Session 1: Tuesday 12 April (14h00-18h00)

Discussant: Dominique Schnapper

Chiara Bortolotto (IIAC/LAHIC)

Collaborative dilemmas: introduction

George Marcus (University of California, Irvine)

Observations on Anthropologists Navigating Their Research Within the Global-Scaled Projects of Neoliberal Leviathans, Circa 2000-2010

Ruth Phillips (Carleton University)

From 'Knowledge' to " Knowledges': Collaborative Research and Inter-Articulation in Museums

Session 2: Wednesday 13 April (9h30-13h00)

Kristin Kuutma (University of Tartu)

*Contemplating the field, the method and accountability in the world of organisations:
UNESCO apparatus from within*

Christoph Brumann (Max Planck Institute for Social Anthropology)

Heritage believers, heritage atheists, and other scholars in research about the UNESCO World Heritage arena

Birgit Müller (CNRS, IIAC/LAIOS)

Action research in the Committee on Food Security of the United Nations

Irène Bellier (CNRS, IIAC/LAIOS)

Engaging collaborative anthropology with indigenous peoples

Session 3: Wednesday 13 April (14h00-18h00)

Discussant: Antoine Bozio

Julie Billaud (Allegra Lab, Max Planck Institute for Social Anthropology, International Committee of the Red Cross)

The humanitarian ethnographer? On the methodological challenges and opportunities of researching the ICRC from within

Maria Sapignoli (Max Planck Institute for Social Anthropology, O'Brien Fellow in Residence McGill University)

Dilemmas, Insecurities, and Opportunities in Multi-Positioned Ethnography

Giulia Scalettaris (IIAC- LAUM)

The International Organisation, Academia and the Researcher in the Making. Acts 1 and 2

Christian Hottin (ministère de la Culture et de la Communication)

La fabrique de l'ethnologie du patrimoine : un regard de conservateur