

GONE FISHING! #holiday

Allegra

August, 2017

With summer in full swing and the heat slowing down our brains we felt that creative spirits were in need of some rejuvenation, and thus went for a bit of fishing (either virtual or real, which ever mental image pleases you more)! We'll be back in action sooner than you realise. Yet, if you miss us, why not re-visit some of the fab stuff of past weeks & months: the newest edition of our virtual roundtable focusing on 'collaborative dilemmas' (don't forget to leave a comment!), our thematic thread featuring the wonderful Moving Matters Traveling Workshop \(MMTW\), or - if you need food for your ears - the newest round of interviews with anthropologists.

Enjoy the sun, have a cold drink and relax – as shall we! And see you very soon again!
